A Christmas Message . . .

"Fear not; for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord . . . Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men."

THUS sang the angels nearly 2,000 years ago. Yet the message is as thrilling and as important today as it was then. "Joy to the world. Peace and good will to all men." When on earth was such a message needed more than it is today? Though there have been more and more terrible wars since the birth of Christianity than ever before, the message is clear and meaningful. In His life and in His teachings lie the secret of "Peace on earth and good will to all men."

He spent His whole life going around doing good, healing the sick, making the blind to see, the deaf to hear and the lame to walk; and to the discouraged, He gave hope and courage. It was He who said,

"Suffer the little children, and forbid them not, to come to me; for of such is the kingdom of heaven."

He promised eternal life to all who would follow Him.

He also promised,

"Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness and all these things will be added unto you."

HE even raised the dead to life when He said, "Young man, I say unto you, Arise!" He forgave and accused not the sinner who repented, but said, "Neither do I accuse thee. Go thy way and sin no more." He taught,

"Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you."

He encouraged the weary by saying,

"Come unto me, all ye that are heavy laden, and I will give you rest."

He brought peace and joy to the earth to all who will accept Him and listen to His word.

Christmas time is a time of good cheer, when through His influence we feel to give sincere messages of good will, when we feel the brotherhood of man, when we desire to be kind, courteous, considerate, helpful, and "Do good to all men." Let us all join in the fun of giving gifts and cheering people on their way and find also the real joy of giving to the world hope in eternal life and especially to those whose hopes are dimmed.

To help men find faith in their fellow-men, faith in themselves, and faith in God, and to understand the purpose of life here and hereafter, is a glorious kind of giving.

May we all go forward with our hearts full of joy and thanksgiving, reflecting the life of Him whose birth we celebrate. And may we sing with the host of heaven,

"Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men."

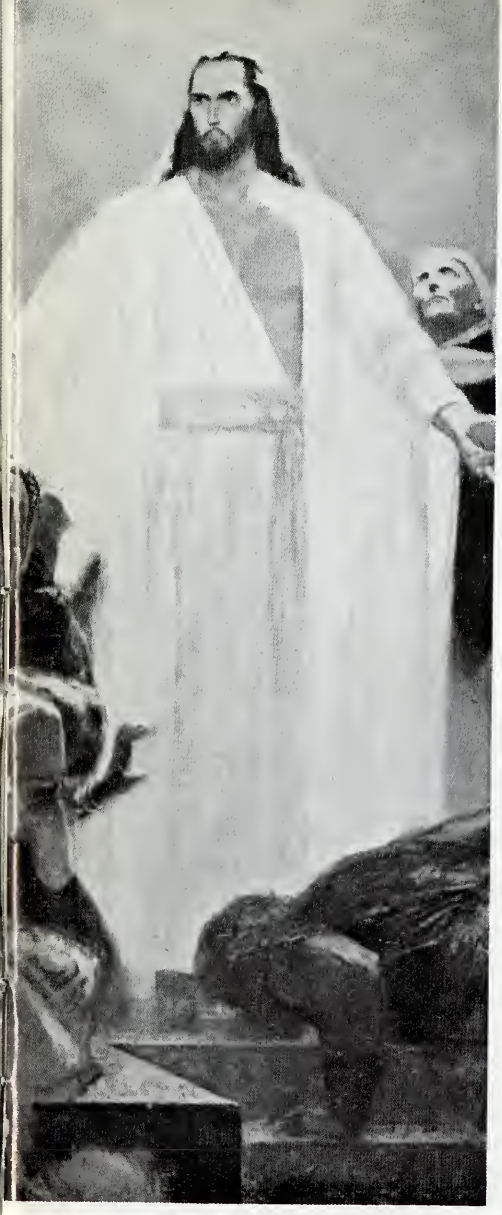
Jesus Christ, Saviour of

A Testimony by President T. Bowring Woodbury

Illustrations by Arnold Friberg



the World

UNDER the direction of our Father, Elohim, Jesus Christ was the Creator of this world. He is the God of this world; and, it is only natural that He should be the Saviour of this world.

According to John the Revelator, there was war in heaven before the foundation of this earth. The controversy was between the gift of free agency to mankind when he went down to earth to obtain his body and have earthly experience, or whether the doctrine of the dark one be accepted and everyone be forced to do right.

The first programme or the programme of progress and perfection as proposed by the Lord was acceptable to the obedient and faithful spirits. The doctrine of force appealed to one-third of the hosts of heaven, who were the rebellious ones and war ensued.

John tells us that the righteous and the freedom-loving spirits prevailed. They overcame Satan and his followers by the " blood of the Lamb " and " by the word of their testimonies."

This prepared the way for the peopling of the earth with the righteous and obedient of Heaven; and our first parents were born, Adam and Eve.

They were given access to the beautiful Garden of Eden and had the choice experience of walking and talking with God. They were advised that of all of the fruit of the garden they could partake; however, they were commanded not to partake of the fruit of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, for in the day that they would eat of the forbidden fruit, they would " surely die ".

The story or disobedience on the part of Eve and then Adam is well known to all of us. They no longer " walked and talked with God." They no longer dwelt in the Garden of Eden.

And, according to the words of the Saviour that in the day of their disobedience they should surely die, they now found themselves both spiritually dead and subject to physical death.

The spiritual death came in the direct separation from God's presence, and the physical death to be suffered was due to the fact that they both became mortal.

Jesus Christ is the Saviour of this world because: One, He broke the bands of physical death through His resurrection. Two, by taking upon Himself the sins of man, he provided the way to overcome spiritual death and bring us again into God's presence upon conditions of faith, repentance, baptism, gift of the Holy Ghost and enduring to the end.

Regarding the physical death which Adam and Eve and we, as their children, suffered, it becomes relatively unimportant for everyone will be resurrected or "saved" as the world knows the term. But, resurrected for what? "Saved" for what? Saved for the judgment and the resultant assignment.

However, as regards spiritual death, this assumes great importance for it involves us personally and individually. Each must act to overcome spiritual death. Each must take the steps of faith, repentance, baptism and the Gift of the Holy Ghost.

Christ Himself set the pattern in "suffering" himself to be baptised. And, Christ Himself, told us of the great gift that would be ours after baptism, the Gift of the Holy Ghost. Scripture outlines the nature of this gift and of the blessings the Holy Ghost will bring into our lives. The Holy Ghost:

1. Leads us into all truth.
2. Recalls all things to our remembrance.
3. Lets us know right from wrong.
4. Tells us of things to come.
5. Showeth all things and teaches the peaceable things of the kingdom.
6. Testifies of the divinity of Jesus Christ.

Little do we understand the great strength and power of the Holy Ghost until we look into the life of Peter and see his weakness in denying Christ before the receipt of the Holy Ghost, and then compare it to the strength of his testimony after receiving the Holy Ghost.

We find this same strength and power in testimonies borne by the membership of Christ's true church today. To my knowledge no church today so universally teaches and accepts and knows of the divinity of Jesus Christ.

Many churches accept Christ as a great teacher, but would a great teacher lead people into deception by claiming divinity?

After our youngest had just been baptised and received the great gift of the testifier, our family attended a funeral in one of the Christian churches for one of our closest business associates. In his talk, the minister paid tribute to Christ as a great teacher but then asked the question,

"Who can say whether Christ was really divine?"

Our little daughter tugged at my coat sleeve; and as I bent over, she whispered this testimony in my ear, "I can say it, Daddy."

Joseph Smith often testified of his knowledge of the divinity of the Saviour of mankind. In fact, he left this written testimony for the world to ponder:

"And now after the testimonies that have been given of him, this is the testimony, last of all, which we give of him: that He lives! For we saw Him, even on the right hand of God, and we heard His voice bearing record that He is the Only Begotten of the Father."

The apostles of the Church testify as to his divinity. My great uncle, George Q. Cannon, one of the early apostles, said in a public meeting, "I know that Jesus Christ lives for I have seen him."

Inasmuch as it is part of the calling of every apostle to testify as to the divinity of Jesus Christ, I always wait for what to me is the sweetest part of their talks when they testify that Christ is truly divine.

How I wish I had been sitting in the audience when Elder Melvin J. Ballard bore testimony as follows:

"I recall an experience which I had two years ago, bearing witness to my soul of the reality of His death, His crucifixion and His resurrection, that I shall never forget. I bear it to you tonight . . . not with a spirit to glory over it, but with a grateful heart and with thanksgiving in my soul. I know that He lives, and I know that through Him men must find their salvation, and that we cannot ignore this blessed offering that He has given us as the means of our spiritual growth to prepare us to come to Him and be justified.

"Away on the Fort Peck Reservation where I was doing missionary work with some of our brethren, labouring among the Indians, seeking the Lord for light to decide certain matters pertaining to our work there, and receiving a witness from Him that we were doing things according to His will, I found myself one evening in the dreams of the night in that sacred building, the temple. After a season of prayer and rejoicing I was informed that I should have the privilege of entering into one of those rooms to meet a glorious Personage; and, as I entered the door, I saw, seated on a raised platform, the most glorious Being my eyes have ever beheld or that I ever conceived existed in all the eternal worlds. As I approached to be introduced, He arose and stepped towards me with extended arms, and He smiled as He softly spoke my name. If I shall live to be a million years old, I shall never forget that smile. He took me into His arms and kissed me, pressed me to His bosom, and blessed me, until the marrow of my bones seemed to melt. When He had finished, I fell at His feet; and, as I bathed them with my tears and kisses, I saw the prints of the nails in the feet of the Redeemer of the world. The feeling that I had in the presence of Him who hath all things in His hands, to have His love, His affection, and His blessings was such that if I ever can receive that of which I had but a foretaste, I would give all that I am, all that I ever hope to be, to feel what I then felt."

From simple child to chosen apostle, each Latter-day Saint knows because of the Holy Ghost that Jesus is the Christ, the son of the living God. This is my own precious knowledge. He was the greatest of all teachers for in His exemplary way He said merely, "Do as I do."

He fasted.

He prayed.

He was baptised.

He worked with His own hands for His support.

He served.

He taught humility by washing the feet of His fellow brethren.

He forgave.

He loved, yes, even His enemies.

Finally, He gave His life that you and I might live eternally in exultation upon the conditions of faith, repentance, baptism, Gift of the Holy Ghost and enduring to the end.

No one not divine would do as much.

He was the Saviour in every sense.

The late apostle Matthew Cowley used to say that Christ is crucified again and again by those who have once accepted Him and His teachings and then forsaken Him. Yet, He is born again and again as our Father's children accept Him through covenant and baptism.

Let this Christmas be a re-birth in our time of renewal and refreshing as we testify of him through regenrated lives of service.

"Good Will Toward Men..."

As we approach our first Christmas in the British Isles away from our family and old friends and stand on the threshold of a New Year, it is a privilege and joy for us to bring greetings and best wishes to our many new and beloved friends and co-workers.

Our association with the wonderful people of the West European Mission has made us feel at home with our new family and has added greatly to our joy and happiness and appreciation of our fellowmen. We have learned to love with all our hearts the wonderful Saints, the loyal missionaries, the devoted mission presidents and their lovely wives.

May we all go forward unitedly, praising God and serving enthusiastically in the service of Him whose birth we celebrate, realising that by "Every Member Being a Missionary" we best can show our love for Him and for our fellowmen and our appreciation of our membership in His Church.

We wish to express our deep appreciation to all of you for the many courtesies and kindness shown to us and the way you have accepted us as one of you. We extend to you our very best wishes for a joyful Christmas and may health, success and happiness attend you throughout the New Year. May you find great joy as you go forward in His service.

Christmas Greetings to all our Friends and Associates

Our dear and beloved friends:

As we approach our fourth Christmas in these beautiful Islands of Britain, it seems our love for you is four-fold what it was four years ago.

Not only has the country become dear and precious to us, but you, our true brothers and sisters, have embraced our hearts and we feel touched with tenderness at the thought of each of you.

The bond of our love is made fast by our common knowledge that Jesus is the Christ. And, our feelings gain depth and dedication in our joint testimony of Him whose birth we celebrate. Our understandings gain soul-satisfying sympathy for one another in our mutual service to Him who presides over His Kingdom and in whose name we worship.

On this Christmas day we are joyful and enriched by knowing you and loving you. And, together we are all enlightened, lifted up, and know peace and love, because we love Him, who is the author of love.

May He bless you and yours with peace and joy and all of the good things of the eternities.

"Bubbles," "Beau," Wendy, Cherie and her husband David, join hearts with me in this expression of love and testimony.

Most affectionately your brother,

Central British Mission

As Christmas comes this year, I feel we have more to be grateful for than ever before. I believe we know better than we ever did what gratitude really is.

In keeping Christmas in the true spirit of the One whose birthday it is, we must be willing, like Him, to forget what we have done for others, and let our thoughts dwell on what others have done for us.

Someone has said,

"We need stop wondering how true our friends are to us, and be more true to them. Burn up your ugly hates and petty jealousies in the Yule Fire, and let its glow penetrate to every recess of our hearts, that others may see and be warmed."

Are we willing to do this for a day—Christmas Day ? If so, then we are keeping Christmas.

In addition to this, we must be willing to radiate the belief that love is the greatest thing in the world—greater than evil, so great that even the grave cannot smother it—and that He who was born on Christmas Day kindled the fire of eternal love on earth, that we might keep it burning brightly. Then we are really keeping Christmas.

Those of us from the Central British Mission extend our love and good wishes to all and wish everyone a joyous Christmas season.

North British Mission

Christmas is a beautiful and glorious time of the year, when we of the North British Mission feel to pause in our labours to contemplate the angelic announcement,

"Fear not: for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

"For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord . . .

"And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the Heavenly host praising God, and saying, Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men."

The beauty of this message is even more priceless when we see so many evidences of unrest, selfishness, cold wars and some not so cold. We are most grateful for the opportunity of sharing with the world the one and only message which will bring peace to the world and ensure its longevity—the Restored Gospel of the Master.

From each of us to each of you we send our love, our greetings and our best wishes with the hope and prayer that our combined performance during the coming year will continue to merit the blessings of our Heavenly Father.

Scottish-Irish Mission

The season celebrated at the birthdate of our Saviour is here and the spirit of love, sacrifice and appreciation fills our hearts. The spirit of giving and doing good is felt by all. The brotherhood of man with the parenthood of God brings us close together as one. Eternal life and purpose of life take a new and signficant value.

Centuries have passed since the Star of Bethlehem with radiant lustre was shown over the manger of the Christ Child, but His teachings, example and sacrifice for others, of His life, have endured and guided men through the ages. He exemplified and taught the great law of love for God and neighbour as the true and happy way of life.

May your Christmas be merry and may happiness and love be your gifts and blessings. May 1962 be the greatest year of your life in service to our Saviour and fellowmen.

May every member be a missionary and may all missionaries be united as one in love and in building the kingdom of God. May we add, as we extend to you our sincere Christmas greetings, that we hope that the golden threads of love that tie our hearts in brotherhood and friendship that they may hold fast not only through the new year, but through all eternity.

Our love and sincere best wishes go out to you.

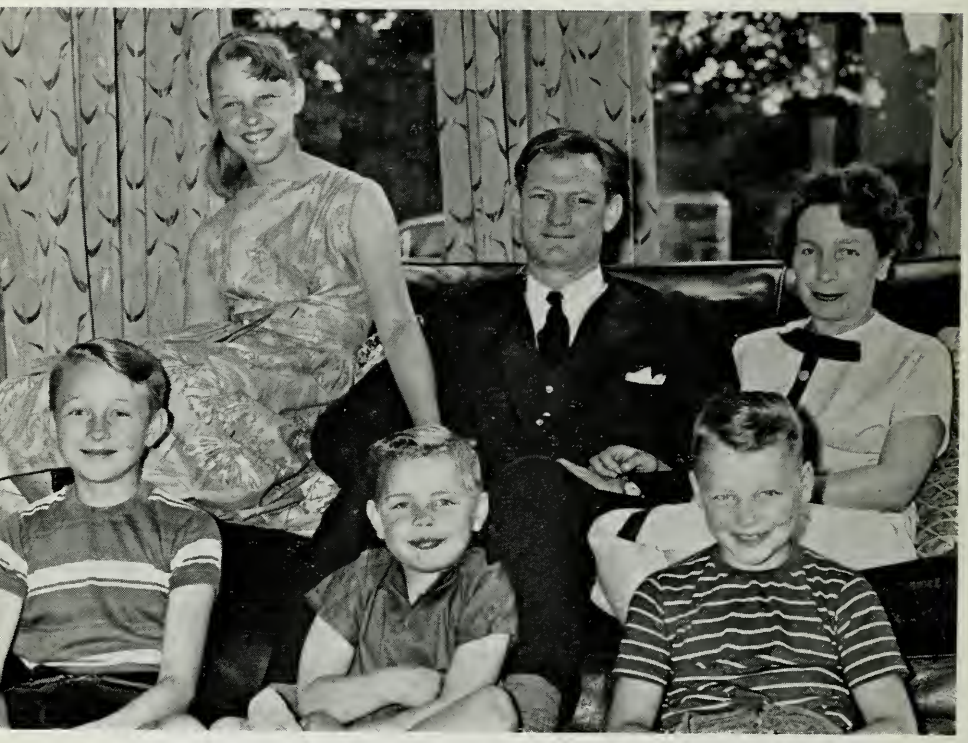
Christmas is a holy day, a day for giving, a day for reflection, a day for consideration of great events that occurred on the day when the Son of God came into the world. How glorious must have been that heavenly choir. How brilliant must have been that new star. How full of wonder must have been the shepherds. How grateful must have been those who stood faithful with Nephi, for that very night they would have lost their lives had not the sign been given, the continuous light though the sun went down.

May the joy of this season enrich our hearts. May the birth of the Saviour which we commemorate on Christmas Day be meaningful to each of us with a new-born willingness to keep our eye single to the Glory of God and to serve him humbly and diligently.

D. W. HEMINGWAY AND FAMILY,

President, London Stake

Manchester Stake



Christmas, symbolising the birth of Jesus Christ, is a time when we experience great joy and give thanks to our Heavenly Father. Truly did the angels proclaim tidings of joy, for the birth of our Lord heralded the arrival into this world of our Saviour and the pattern for living which He gave to us. A way of life by which we might return to the presence of our Father in Heaven and thus inherit eternal life. Satan geared all His forces of evil to destroy Jesus at birth, through the age-old tools of fear, avarice and pride in Herod. But just as the power of God defeated him then, so will it always be, and those who obey the still small voice, as did Joseph and Mary, will be saved.

Truly this is a time for celebration and rejoicing, peace and good will toward all men and especially toward children. For so it was that the family was the chosen way for our Lord's entry into the world and so it was that the three wise men gave righteous celebration in reverence and joy with one's family and friends stands approved in the eyes of the Lord. A happy Christmas to all.

WILLIAM BATES AND FAMILY,
President, Manchester Stake

London Temple

It has been a privilege to live with you in your beautiful green island since the dedication of the London Temple.

Our hearts have rejoiced with you, as you have brought your families to this sacred edifice, and participated in the greatest blessings that can be given to mankind on this earth. Great will be your joy as your blessings are increased through observance of the teachings of our Saviour by righteous living.

At this season of the year as the minds of the people in the world are in turmoil, it will be well to remember that exaltation will never come to the human race from the benighted mind of an anti-Christ. Only in the teachings of Jesus Christ, the Saviour of mankind, do we find the truth and the promise that can be depended upon. We encourage you to cling to this promise.

Books and Supplies For British Stakes and Missions

by Derek A. Cuthbert

BY assignment of the First Presidency, Deseret Enterprises Limited has been organised as a " private " company to function as the commercial source of supply for books and materials needed by the stakes, missions, wards, branches and members of the Church in Great Britain.

The Company will also supply other English speaking stakes and missions beyond North America.

The First Presidency has authorised the Company to publish the Book of Mormon, Doctrine & Covenants, Pearl of Great Price, Articles of Faith, Jesus the Christ and the Latter-Day Saint Hymns in this country. Attractive " Deseret " editions in " missionary ", cloth and leatherette bindings are being manufactured of all but the hymns. This latter book is being bound in a durable fabric, called " Rexine ", designed to withstand the extraordinary use the book receives.

The first books will be off the press in January, 1962.

Elder LeGrand Richards, author of A Marvellous Work and a Wonder, has consented to the Company's publishing a " Deseret " edition of this popular book.

In addition to these books, Deseret Enterprises Limited will import other Church books and will be the distributing agent in Great Britain for Sunday school manuals and supplies, as well as for the manuals and materials of the Young Men's and Young Women's Mutual Improvement Associations, the Primary Association, the General Priesthood Committee and the Presiding Bishopric.

Orders for these supplies for the new year are now coming to the company from the American suppliers.

The Company's place of business is at 288-316 London Road, Mitcham, Surrey.

Officers of the Company are: President N. Eldon Tanner of the West European Mission, Chairman, and members of the Board of Directors, Presidents William Bates (Manchester Stake), Dennis Livesey (Leeds Stake), Derek A. Cuthbert (Leicester Stake), James P. Hill (London Stake) and T. Bowring Woodbury of the British Mission. President Derek A. Cuthbert is General Manager.

The shareholders are the First Presidency of the Church.

The business of publishing and distributing the Millennial Star has also been assigned to Deseret Enterprises Limited. The business manager of the Star is Derek A. Cuthbert. Thomas Price is Circulation Manager. The editorial management of the magazine includes Presidents N. Eldon Tanner, T. Bowring Woodbury and Elder Gerreld L. Pulsipher.

Elder Wilfrid Clark is Foreman of Receiving and Shipping of the Company, Mary Greenwood is the Company Bookkeeper.

The Company is a service organisation, intended to carry on the commercial activities involved in supplying the people and organisations of the Church in this country. Articles which are not to be bought and sold, but which are supplied to the wards and branches directly without cost to them, such as required forms, come directly from the original sources of supply.

Special forms, reports, records or materials desired by individual missions and stakes for their organisations will be supplied by them and not by the Company.

Whenever exceptions are made to these provisions, notice will be given to the local officers.

The Company will issue price-lists of all items it offers for sale.

Distribution of price-lists for garments will be limited to Branch Presidents and Ward Bishops and Relief Society Presidents.

Former British Mission President A. Hamer Reiser, at the request of President Tanner was lent to the West European Mission by the First Presidency, to set up Deseret Enterprises in its present capacity. Since his release from the British Mission in 1955 President Reiser has served as a Secretary to the First Presidency. He and Sister Reiser, who have been in this country since June 1, 1961, returned to America on November 13, 1961, having completed the special assignment. President Reiser will, however, maintain a keen interest in the new Company, having been appointed its American representative.

MIA Summer Camp

August 1961

by Sally Bull

TEN MILES from Dolgelly and near the village of Dinas Mawddwy, Merioneth, North Wales, 220 Saints from the British and Central British Missions, London and Leicester Stakes, held an MIA Summer Camp. Eleven months of steady preparation had gone into this event by a committee of 15 under the capable chairmanship of Peter Houghton of Hyde Park Ward.

The first arrivals at the camp on Saturday, August 12, found that a "Mormon Village" of tents had been erected, and an excellent supper, the first of many delicious meals prepared by Brothers Jack Taverner, John Wiles and George Winfield, was waiting to be eaten.

Despite the bad weather, a full programme of activities was maintained. Throughout the week the campers enjoyed mountaineering, rambles, fishing, a mock war, swimming, excursions to Fairbourne and Barmouth, sports and games. During the evenings the committee provided film shows, dancing and firesides.

Early on the first evening it was reported that Keith Waterhouse of Birmingham had been hurt whilst playing on the mountainside. He was unable to move and had difficulty in breathing. By 7.15 p.m. several of the brethren had reached him. Later blankets were taken to him and a St. John Ambulance Brigade man went to examine him. It was his opinion that two ribs were fractured and it was decided to attempt to carry Keith down the mountain. Before beginning the tricky descent, he was administered to by two of the brethren. It took six men four hours to carry him in the darkness to the foot of the mountain, where a doctor was waiting. His diagnosis was three fractured ribs, and Keith was taken to Dolgelly Hospital. On reaching the hospital he was X-rayed, but no trace of any bone injury was discovered. He was kept under observation for a few days, and those on the hospital staff were amazed at his rapid recovery, for Keith was back in camp by the following Thursday, determined not to miss any more of the fun than he had to.

Sacrament meeting was held in the camp at which the speakers were Elders Frank Tennant and George Winfield, high councilmen from the Leicester Stake. A short testimony meeting followed.

On the last evening before camp was broken a grand variety show was staged. Each ward and branch presented at least one act, and the local people from Dinas Mawddwy were invited to share in the fun. Songs, jokes, skits, fruit cake and Caro were the ingredients of the grand finale to the camp.

Saturday morning, August 19, dawned, the camp was over and the "exodus" began—in the rain, of course. Most of the campers had a lot of fun, made a host of new friends and discovered that the Gospel was the same, no matter where the accent that proclaimed the truth originated. Not the least of the lessons learned during the week was a knowledge of the great spiritual joy as well as physical pleasure that can come from spending a summer holiday in a "Mormon" community.

NEW BRA CALENDAR

Of Stake And District Events

August 30—A new slant on Relief Society outings was given by York Branch. The York Sisters invited Hull Relief Society for a day and offered to take care of the children so that relaxation could be complete. The programme for the day included a visit to the Rowntree chocolate factory, a tour of the "Shambles" (the old part of the city) and a river trip. Tea was served in the garden of York Chapel and the sisters were able to rest after their busy day whilst enjoying the pleasure of each other's company.

September 5—Derby Ward moved into its sumptuous new chapel. A former hotel, built in 1898, has now been converted into a meeting-house. Fitted carpets in most rooms, indirect lighting and a croquet green have transformed the old building into an attractive chapel.

September 15—Eastwood Ward held a farewell social honouring Patrick Fothergill who has been called on a labour mission. Bishop Stanley Hill presented him with an address book at the party which was attended by sixty of his friends.

September 15—The noise heard in Leicester on this autumn evening was that made by sixty or so of the members having a lot of fun. Highlighting the evening were a fancy-dress parade and a shadow play in which Bishop Porter was successfully "operated" on by "Doctors" Tom Ford, Ernest Bray and " Nurse " M. Porter. Dancing brought the evening to a successful conclusion.

September 17—Bishop Sydney G. Hill was proud to present graduation certificates to ten of the Eastwood Ward Primary children, Julie Catlin, Paula Catlin, Merylyn Wild, Pamela Hill, Sheila Haslam, Marion Barns, Philip Aldred, David Martin, Philip Martin and Melvin Potts were the happy recipients of the certificates.

September 23—The groundbreaking ceremony of the new Lowestoft Chapel took place at 11 a.m. and was attended by President James A. Cullimore, the Mayor of Lowestoft Alderman F. E. Jones, President Jeffrey Packe, Brothers John Bradley and Steven Baird of the Building Committee, other members and guests. The press was well represented and articles and photographs of the service appeared in the Lowestoft Journal.

The new chapel will be the most modern to be built in the town and was described as a great asset to the community by Alderman Jones who also spoke glowingly of the Church's youth programme.

September 23—Honoured guests at the Worcester Branch Relief Society dinner were District Relief Society President, Sister Smart, Branch President W. C. Coleman and the husbands of the members. The brethren were given the opportunity of seeing for themselves the excellence of the programme planned for the winter. Corsages of red carnations were presented to the ladies and yellow carnation buttonholes to the gentlemen as the group enjoyed the beautifully prepared and served meal. Sisters Byrne, Beresford and Booth acted as waitresses on this notable occasion.

September 26—Lincoln saints welcomed guests from Neward at the social organised by Branch President James. The sum of £2 13s. 5d. was raised towards the building fund by the sale of refreshments.

September 26—East Belfast Relief Society organised a bazaar at very short notice and raised sufficient funds to buy materials for work meetings. Reasonably priced hats proved to be a great attraction for many of the bargain-hunting non-members who came to the bazaar and remained to enjoy the social following.

September 26—Brothers Alan and Trevor Kennington, the first labour missionaries to be called from Hull Branch, were honoured at a farewell social and dance. A triple combination was presented to each of them prior to their departure to work on the Leeds and Sunderland Chapels.

September 29—Leicester Stake MIA Board sponsored a Roadshow. A varied programme of numbers from Coventry, Nuneaton, Wolverhampton, Loughborough, Eastwood, Leicester and Nottingham Wards, well larded

This month we honour . . .

George Ross

Second Counsellor in the South Scottish District Presidency

by Pamela Johnson

PRESIDENT George Ross, Second Counsellor in the North Scottish District Presidency, couples a highly successful professional career in the field of ladies' hairdressing with an extremely busy Church life.

He was born in the small Perthshire town of Crieff, the youngest of eleven children. His early years were ones of struggle as his mother, who was widowed eight months after his birth, endeavoured to rear her large family on a very meagre pension.

The first and greatest love in the life of President Ross was football and at nineteen he turned professional, playing first for "Dundee United" then "Edinburgh Hibernians". His career was well established on the upward trend when the Second World War began and he joined the R.A.S.C., rising to the rank of company sergeant-major during his seven and a half year's service.

President Ross was one of the first men to land on the Normandy beaches on D-Day, but was wounded in both legs a few days after the original assault. It was one of the darkest days of his life when after many operations on his legs he was told that he would never be able to play football again. A small comfort to his infinite disappointment was the news that he had been "Mentioned in Dispatches" for his meritorious service in Europe.

On his return to civilian life he began managing his sister's ladies' hairdressing business. Under his direction the business has grown considerably and for the past two years employees from his salon have won major awards in Scottish national hairdressing contests. The salon is noted for its happy atmosphere as well as the skill of the assistants, six of whom are active members of Dundee Branch.

Another facet of his business life is the time he spends acting as business manager for Dennis Clancy. He accompanied Brother Clancy on his recent tour of the United States.

President Ross brings an air of quiet efficiency to all he does. He likes to get a job done without wasting time fussing over trivialities or making excuses. He is exceptionally generous.

believing that as he has been blessed materially, it is his privilege to do the same for others.

Since they joined the Church, the Ross family have been unitedly active in the Church. Sister Charlotte Ross is District Relief Society President and their elder daughter, Aileen (who was recently featured in this series following her success in the Scottish Junior Hairstyling Contest) is the branch YWMIA President.

"Strict but kind" is the verdict of many who know and love President Ross. Undeviating in his chosen course of service to his brethren, George Ross stands to all as a symbol of integrity and courage.

with Brother Tom Hezseltine's laconic humour, was presented to a capacity crowd in the Nottingham Chapel.

September 30—Brother Terry Jones acted as M.C. at the Worcester Branch social at which a clock was presented to newly-weds, Brother and Sister Nienhuis. Musical numbers, games and dancing organised by Rosemary Avery made this an outstanding event on the branch calendar.

October 3—Peterborough Relief Society held a box supper to note the beginning of the new Relief Society year and invited the brethren to join them for this occasion. The tablecloths were maps produced by Sister Evans and the games and music were reminiscent of the far-away places so vividly in the decorations.

October 7—The weather outdoors was cold and dismal, but gloom was banished from inside the chapel at the Grimsby Branch jumble sale. The goods for sale included clothes, crockery and shoes and realised the sum of £6 10s. towards branch funds.

October 14—Two of the younger members of Grimsby Branch volunteered to take care of all the washing up at the Branch Primary Party and by their kindness enabled the officers and teachers to join in the fun and games with the children.

October 17—Lowestoft MIA celebrated Hallowe'en early this year and seventy ghouls, witches and warlocks danced to music provided by the "Parker Quartet".

October 27—Billingham Branch Relief Society noted the commencement of the new Relief Society year by giving a dinner to which many of the branch members were invited.

Because of their outstanding leadership ability, Sisters Glenda Turner, Gloria Tantony and Brother Colin Parker, executives of Lowestoft MIA, have been chosen to sit on the Town Youth Council.

Engagements

Janet Cotton-Betteridge, late of Lingfield, Surrey, now residing in Salt Lake City, Utah, the only daughter of Brother and Sister Frank Cotton-Betteridge, to Ross Baum of Heber City, Utah.
